

MALACCA, MALAEZIA

Heritage Trail of Malacca

Get acquainted with Malacca's glorious past, hidden behind the façades of some lovely centuries-old buildings. The history of Malaysia is said to have begun in this city, when it was a great seaport that the Portuguese, Dutch and British took turns at ruling. Malacca is now a treasure trove of history, culture and cuisine. Venture down the narrow, winding streets to find histo...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 4½ hours

Malacca & Countryside

Depart from the pier and proceed to a small rubber tree plantation, where you learn about the process and end products of rubber making. Malaysia produces almost 20% of the world's natural rubber. Next, you will visit the village of legendary Malay warrior, Hang Tuah. It is commonly believed that Kampung Duyung (Mermaid Village) was the home of this legendary warrior during the early day...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 4 hours

Walk the Dutch Trail

Once an old spice center for Eastern and Western traders, Malacca boasts a colorful history forged by Malay Sultans, European powers and the formation of multi-cultural communities. Each of these impressive historical eras left its own indelible heritage and influence. Walk back through time as you discover the great empi...

VIEW DETAILS

Book now

Login to add to Favorites

Email Excursion

Approximately 3½ hours

