Tour Descriptions for Puerto Montt, Chile

BEST OF PUERTO MONTT - NATURE & TRADITIONS

Puerto Montt, Chile Tour Code: PMC_02

A drive through Puerto Montt takes you through the main square. Head to Puerto Varas where you'll have a magnificent view of Lake Llanquihue with snow covered volcanoes reflecting in the clear waters. This is South America's third largest natural lake. On the east side you'll find a charming German-style village where you'll stop at a handicraft market.

Then visit a local farm - Fundo Olguita and learn about Chilean cowboys 'huasos', their traditions, food, games, and costumes. Watch a performance by pure bred Chilean horses and then enjoy a typical meal, accompanied by some of the finest local wines, as you are entertained by a folkloric show.

Note: Tour involves approximately 1/2 mile of walking over uneven terrain.

PETROHUE FALLS & LAKE ESMERALDA

Puerto Montt, Chile Tour Code: PMC_04

This tour is a photographer's dream. Start with a drive to the tiny port of Petrohue in the Vicente Perez Rosales National Park, and board a catamaran for a cruise on Lake Todos los Santos, known as Lake Esmeralda because of its vivid, blue-green color. Enjoy lunch in the Puerto Varas surroundings before your drive to Petrohue Falls. You'll stop along the way for a short walk through the woods to the Petrohue River, where the waters plunge over hard volcanic rocks to form wild, gushing cascades.

The path is well-marked and has railings, but some parts are uneven and crooked and can be muddy after a rainfall. On the return to the port, you'll drive through the beautiful, lush countryside dotted with weathered clapboard barns and churches. You'll stop at the handicraft market in Puerto Varas. Here, you'll have magnificent views of Lake Llanquihue, the largest lake in Chile, and snow-capped Osorno Volcano. You'll see the highlights of Puerto Montt on a short orientation drive.

Note: Tour involves approximately 1 mile of walking over uneven terrain and managing 40 steps.

ALERCE FOREST ECO WALK & GERMAN COLONIZATION MUSEUM

Puerto Montt, Chile Tour Code: PMC_10

Learn about Puerto Montt's rich German heritage and experience the beauty of its ancient forests. The giant Alerce tree is native to Southern Chile and due to its ever increasing value, it is now on the verge of extinction. It takes hundreds and thousands of years for the tree to develop its unique form. Today you'll have the opportunity to stand up-close to some of these giants in the Lahuen Ñadi Forest, during an approximately one-hour eco walk through stunning landscapes.

Drive to Nueva Braunau and visit the Colonization Museum, located in the rustic barn of an old farm. It displays a private collection of settlers' items, some of which have never been available to the public before. Is a great way to learn about the life of the German settlers who colonized this area around the turn of the 20th century. You'll also make a short stop in Puerto Varas, with its wooden colonial homes built by German immigrants. Take a stroll in the main square for an incredible view of Lake Llanquihue and Osorno Volcano and visit the handicraft market here.

Note: Tour involves approximately 3/4 miles of walking over uneven terrain and managing 100 steps.
