Coastal Cruise to Exclusive Abi Beach - STS3

Follow the picturesque St. Thomas coast on a relaxing cruise to discover a stretch of paradise that can only be reached by boat. Abi Beach sits on the 130-acre site of an 18th-century plantation that has been lovingly transformed into a secluded island oasis. Upon arrival, you'll be greeted by a friendly host and told all about the many options your beach day has to offer. Snorkeling, paddleboarding, kayaking, volleyball, and just lounging in a comfy beach chair, to name but a few. For a little barefoot indulgence, head to the Abi Beach Bar, where tropical cocktails are poured overlooking the turquoise sea. If you get hungry, great island-inspired dishes are served all day long.

Escape the crowds and enjoy the peace of Abi Beach. Upbeat island music is offered as on your catamaran or schooner ride along the St. Thomas coastline. You'll receive a briefing of all the services and activities upon arrival. The beach set on a 130-acre former 18th century plantation offers a view of glass-like waters abundant with sea life and fascinating protected reef. On your return, enjoy a complimentary drink as you take in the beautiful scenery.

Highlights:

- Abi Beach: Cruise St. Thomas' coastline to this tranquil beach and enjoy fun-filled activities and delicious island-themed dishes.

Discover St. Thomas - STU4

Discover the best that St. Thomas has to offer — spectacular views, magnificent beaches, rich history and fantastic duty-free shopping. Enjoy a scenic ride along the aptly named Skyline Drive, stopping at Drake's Seat for panoramic photos of Magens Bay and the British Virgin Islands. (The 16th-century explorer Sir Francis Drake was said to have used this vantage point to keep watch over his fleet.) Then descend to the pristine sands of heart-shaped Magens Bay Beach, considered to be one of the top 10 beaches in the world, for a couple of hours of swimming, playing and relaxing.

Then head to Blackbeard's Castle, the 40-foot-tall 17th-century watchtower the infamous pirate once used as a lookout. Climb to the top for sweeping views all the way to Puerto Rico. Also step inside historical manor houses nearby, some dating back to the late 1600s, to marvel at the extensive collection of handmade West Indian mahogany furniture. Stroll the lush tropical terraced gardens, plus behold the glistening Amber Waterfall, a fountain handcrafted from 12,000-plus amber jewels. Your tour continues to charming downtown Charlotte Amalie for incredible duty-free shopping. Peruse the shops and boutiques at your leisure before making your own way back via taxi.

Highlights:

- Magens Bay Beach: Swim, play and relax on the pristine sands of one of the world's top beaches.
- Blackbeard's Castle: Climb to the top of this famous lookout; stroll the beautiful terraced gardens of manor homes nearby.
- Shopping: Enjoy free time for incredible duty-free shopping in charming downtown Charlotte Amalie.
