

Ports & Excursions

Port Elizabeth, South Africa

Elephants, lions, zebra, giraffes and wildebeest - these will likely be your traveling companions when you are ashore in Port Elizabeth, because this charming town is the coastal facade for a vast region of healthy, vibrant game parks. If a safari is on your mind, you have come to the right place.

Port Elizabeth is your gateway to some of the finest game parks in all Africa. Alternatively, there are miles of glorious beaches, shopping, museums, and an aquarium that showcases the marine life of the Indian Ocean.

Points of Interest

1 Game Reserves

A drive through Port Elizabeth's reserves in an open-air safari vehicle offers a bird's eye view of the regions game and wildlife, including the "Big 5" (lion, leopard, elephant, buffalo and rhino).

2 Addo Elephant Park

This finely tuned ecosystem is sanctuary to over 450 elephants, Cape buffalo, black rhino, a variety of antelope species, and the unique flightless dung beetle, found almost exclusively in Addo.

3 Port Elizabeth Bayworld Museum Complex

As one of Port Elizabeth's major tourist attractions, Bayworld embraces a natural and cultural history museum combined with an Oceanarium and Snake Park.

4 Donkin Reserve

The Donkin Reserve features park benches, walking paths, the Opera House, a lighthouse and a memorial to the wife of Sir Rufane Donkin, the founder of the village of Donkin.
