PORTO-VECCHIO, FRANCE

Porto Vecchio, Bonifaccio Scenic Sights & Little Train

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Capture the essential sights of the medieval city of Bonifacio on foot and aboard a mini train. Whether approached from east or west, Bonifacio appears as "Land's End," through its isolation from Corsica's vast, arid limestone plateau. Your sightseeing of the Citadel and Old Genoese town is aboard alittle train on wheels. It will first take you to the marine cemetery located high atop cliffs, affording impressive views over the Straits of Bonifacio to Sardinia, which lies approximately 7 miles away. Once in the heart of the old town, your exploration continues with a guided walk, through typical narrow streets. You will see wonderful sites around each corner with historic churches, monuments and curiosities dating back to the 16th century. After returning to the station on the little train, you will return by coach to Porto Vecchio.

Please note: The little train is not wheelchair accessible.

Porto Vecchio, Coastal Drive & Sartene

ACTIVITY LEVEL: MODERATE

Come face-to-face with Corsica's resplendent scenic highlights on this overview traveling by comfortable motor coach. You will take a 1¾-hour drive along the scenic west coast , with several stops en route including the great landmark – the Roccapina Lion. This mass of rose-colored granite has been weathered through time into the shape of a recumbent lion. You will then head toward Sartene, which has been dubbed the most "Corsican of Corsican towns." It lies cradled on a promontory with impressive houses nestled into the rocks. Due to its coastal location, it was vulnerable to foreign invaders and its colorful history includes pirate attacks, battles against the Genoese occupiers in the Middle Ages and several vendettas in Corsican history. Following a guided walking tour of Sartene, you will have free time to browse before returning to the coach for the 1¾-hour drive back to Porto Vecchio.

Please note: This tour involves traveling along winding roads.
