Agadir, Panoramic Agadir

ACTIVITY LEVEL: EASY

Agadir is situated at the foot of the Atlas mountain range, which suffered an earthquake in 1962 that destroyed many of the city's historic building. Since then the city has rebuilt itself as a modern holiday resort with over 300 days of sunshine each year. You will transfer by coach, to the Cap Ghir Hillsummit and viewpoint, home of the ancient Kasbah. Though mainly destroyed, the partial front gate of the Kasbah still declares in Dutch: "Fear God and honor they King." You will disembark in Agadir where local guides will be waiting to point out the various attractions including the Talborjt Mosquefollowed by a refreshment stop at a café for Moroccan tea. Continue on to the center of town, to theBerber Market, the heart of the colorful souks, where you will have free time to shop and practice your bartering skills purchasing local mementos. You will then be transferred via motor coach back to your yacht.

Please note: Wear comfortable walking shoes. This tour is not wheelchair accessible.
